Contingent Expenses, United States Consulates—Continued.

The Secretary of State may lease or rent, for periods not exceeding ten years, such buildings and grounds for offices for the Foreign Service as may be necessary; and he may, in accordance with existing practice without cost to them, and within the limit of any appropriation made by Congress, continue to furnish the chief diplomatic representatives and their minor employees in foreign countries and officers and employees in the Foreign Service in China, Japan, and Turkey with living quarters, heat, light, and household equipment in Government-owned buildings and in buildings rented for use as offices at places where, in his judgment, it would be in the public interest to do so, notwithstanding the provisions of section 1765 of the Revised Statutes and appropriations for "Contingent expenses, foreign missions," and "Contingent expenses, consulates," are hereby made available for such purposes; and he is also authorized, in his discretion, to furnish living quarters in such buildings to other officers and employees not herein provided for, at rates to be determined by him (R. S., p. 310, sec. 1748; acts May 24, 1924, vol. 43, p. 140; Apr. 29, 1926, vol. 44, p. 333).

GENERAL SUPPLY COMMITTEE

Salaries and Expenses, General Supply Committee—

Salaries: For personal services in the District of Columbia in accordance with the classification act of 1923 not exceeding $113,700; necessary expenses, including office supplies and materials, maintenance of motor trucks, telegrams, telephone service, traveling expenses, office equipment, fuel, light, electric current, maintenance of motor trucks, and other necessary expenses for carrying into effect the Executive order of December 3, 1918, regulating the transfer of office materials, supplies, and equipment in the District of Columbia falling into disuse because of the cessation of war activities; in all, [$120,000] $119,000: Provided, That the said Executive order shall continue in effect until June 30, [1927] 1928, without modification, except that the price charged shall be the current market value at time of issue, less a discount for usage, but in no instance shall the discount be more than 25 per centum, and that the proceeds from the transfer of appropriations thereunder shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts: Provided further, That the heads of the executive departments and independent establishments and the Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall cooperate with the Secretary of the Treasury in connection with the storage and delivery of material, supplies, and equipment transferred under the foregoing order and for effecting the transfer or disposition of other surplus and waste material or supplies: Provided further, That typewriters and computing machines transferred to the General Supply Committee as surplus, where such machines have become unfit for further use, may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury, be issued to other Government departments and establishments at exchange prices quoted in the current general schedule of supplies or sold commercially.

Estimates of appropriations required for the service of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1928—Continued

General object (title of appropriation), date of acts, references to Statutes at Large, or to Revised Statutes, and estimated amount required for each detailed object	Total amount to be appropriated under each head of appropriation	Amount appropriated for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1927
Salaries and Expenses, General Supply Committee—Continued.
Repairs to typewriting machines (except bookkeeping and billing machines) in the Government service in the District of Columbia may be made at cost by the General Supply Committee, payment therefor to be effected by transfer and counterwarrant, charging the proper appropriation and crediting the appropriation "Salaries and expenses, General Supply Committee."
No part of any money appropriated by this or any other act shall be used during the fiscal year [1927] 1928 for the purchase of any standard typewriting machines, except bookkeeping and billing machines, at a price in excess of the following for models with carriages which will accommodate paper of the following widths, to wit: Ten inches (correspondence models), $70; twelve inches, $75; fourteen inches, $77.50; sixteen inches, $82.50; eighteen inches, $87.50; twenty inches, $94; twenty-two inches, $95; twenty-four inches, $97.50; twenty-six inches, $103.50; twenty-eight inches, $104; thirty inches, $105; thirty-two inches, $107.50.
All purchases of typewriting machines during the fiscal year [1927] 1928 by executive departments and independent establishments for use in the District of Columbia or in the field, except as hereinafter provided, shall be made from the surplus machines in the stock of the General Supply Committee. The War Department shall furnish the General Supply Committee, immediately upon the approval of this act, a complete inventory of the various makes, models, and classes of typewriters in its possession, the condition of such machines, and the point of storage, and shall turn over to the General Supply Committee such typewriting machines in such quantities as the Secretary of the Treasury from time to time may call for by specific requisition for sale to the various services of the Government. If the General Supply Committee is unable to furnish serviceable machines to any such service of the Government, it shall furnish unserviceable machines, if available, at current exchange prices, and such machines shall then be applied by the service of the Government receiving them as part payment for new machines from commercial sources in accordance with the prices fixed in the preceding paragraph. And in selling typewriting machines to the various services the General Supply Committee may accept an equal number of unserviceable machines as part payment thereon at the exchange prices quoted in the current general schedule of supplies (act Mar. 2, 1926, vol. 44, p. 138)	$119,000.00	$120,000.00

Sinking Fund—
SEC. 6 (a). That there is hereby created in the Treasury a cumulative sinking fund for the retirement of bonds and notes issued under the first Liberty bond act, the second Liberty bond act, the third Liberty bond act, the fourth Liberty bond act, or under this act, and outstanding on July 1, 1920. The sinking fund and all additions thereto are hereby appropriated for the payment of such bonds and notes at maturity, or for the redemption or purchase thereof before maturity by the Secretary of the Treasury at such prices and upon such terms and conditions as he shall prescribe, and shall be available until all such bonds and notes are retired. The average cost of the bonds and notes purchased shall not exceed par and accrued interest. Bonds and notes purchased, redeemed, or paid out of the sinking fund shall be canceled and retired and shall not be reissued. For the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1920, and for each fiscal year thereafter, until all such bonds and notes are retired, there is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purposes of such sinking fund, an amount equal to the sum of (1) 2½ per cent of the aggregate amount of such bonds and notes outstanding on July 1, 1920, less an amount equal to the par amount of any obligations of foreign governments held by the United States on July 1, 1920, and (2) the interest which would have been payable during the fiscal year for which the appropriation is made on the bonds and notes purchased, redeemed, or paid out of the sinking fund during such year or in previous years (act Mar. 3, 1919, vol. 40, pp. 1311, 1312, sec. 6) ..... 354,157,085.00 | 336,058,208.26

TRUST FUND

Pay of the Army, Deposit Fund—
So much as may be necessary to pay back such deposits (soldiers' deposits) as may not be repaid on June 30, 1906, as shown by the books of the office of the Chief of Finance, said sum to be transferred in the Treasury Department from the pay of the Army to the credit of the deposit fund created by section 1305 of the Revised Statutes, as herein amended. That section 1305 of the Revised Statutes of the United States is hereby amended, to take effect July 1, 1906, and to read as follows:
"SEC. 1305. Any enlisted man of the Army may deposit his savings, in sums not less than $5, with any Army paymaster, who shall furnish him a deposit book, in which shall be entered the name of the paymaster and of the soldier, and the amount, date, and place of such deposit. The amount so deposited shall be accounted for in the same manner as other public funds, and shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States and kept as a separate fund, known as pay of the Army deposit fund, repayment of which to the enlisted man on discharge from the service shall be made out of the fund created by said deposits, and shall not be subject to forfeiture by sentence of court-martial, but shall be forfeited by desertion, and shall not be permitted to be paid until final payment on discharge, or to the heirs or representatives of a deceased soldier, and that such deposits be exempt from liability for such soldier's debts: Provided, That the Government shall be liable for the amount deposited to the persons so depositing the same" (act June 12, 1906, vol. 34, pp. 245, 246)	1,500,000.00	900,000.00
52 Repayment of deposits: Expenditures—1928, $1,500,000; 1927, $1,500,000; 1926, $1,508,126.50.

Wagon Roads, Bridges, and Trails, Alaska Fund—
That section 1 of an act entitled "An act to provide for the construction and maintenance of roads, the establishment and maintenance of schools, and the care and support of insane persons in the District of Alaska, and for other purposes," approved January 27, 1905, as amended by an act approved May 14, 1906, and as further amended by an act approved February 6, 1909, be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to read as follows:
"Section 1. That all moneys derived from and collected for liquor licenses, occupation or trade licenses, outside of the incorporated towns in the Territory of Alaska, shall be deposited in the Treasury Department of the United States, there to remain as a separate and distinct fund, to be known as the 'Alaska fund,' and to be wholly devoted to the purposes hereinafter stated in the Territory of Alaska. Twenty-five per centum of said fund, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be devoted to the establishment and maintenance of public schools in said Territory; 10 per centum of said fund shall be, and is hereby, appropriated and authorized to be expended for the relief of persons in Alaska who are indigent and incapacitated through nonage, old age, sickness, or accident; and all the residue of said fund shall be devoted to the construction and maintenance of wagon roads, bridges, and trails in said Territory: * * *
"That at the end of each fiscal quarter the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States shall divide the amount of said 10 per centum of said fund so received during the quarter just ended into four equal parts and transmit to each of the four United States district judges in Alaska one of said equal amounts. * * * Provided further, That any unexpended balance remaining in the hands of any judge at the end of any quarter shall be returned to the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, and by him deposited in the said 'Alaska fund,' and the said sum shall be subsequently devoted, first, to meeting any actual requirements for the care and relief of such persons as are provided for in this act in any other division in said Territory wherein the amount allotted for that purpose has proved insufficient; and, second, if there shall be any remainder thereof, said remainder shall be devoted for the construction and maintenance of wagon roads, bridges, and trails in said Territory" (act Mar. 3, 1913, vol. 37, p. 728).

The Governor of the Panama Canal, so far as the expenditure of appropriations contained in this act may be under his direction, shall, when it is more economical, purchase needed materials, supplies, and equipment from available surplus stocks of the War Department (act Apr. 15, 1926, vol. 44, p. 295).
In addition to the foregoing sums there is appropriated for the fiscal year [1927] 1928 for expenditures and reinvestment under the several heads of appropriation aforesaid, without being covered into the Treasury of the United States, all moneys received by the Panama Canal from services rendered or materials and supplies furnished to the United States, the Panama Railroad Company, the Canal Zone government, or to their employees, respectively, or to the Panama Government, from hotel and hospital supplies and services; from rentals, wharfage, and like service; from labor, materials, and supplies and other services furnished to vessels other than those passing through the canal, and to others unable to obtain the same elsewhere; from the sale of scrap and other by-products of manufacturing and shop operations; from the sale of obsolete and unserviceable materials, supplies, and equipment purchased or acquired for the operation, maintenance, protection, sanitation, and government of the canal and Canal Zone; and any net profits accruing from such business to the Panama Canal shall annually be covered into the Treasury of the United States (same act).
In addition, there is appropriated for the operation, maintenance, and extension of waterworks, sewers, and pavements in the cities of Panama and Colon, during the fiscal year [1927] 1928, the necessary portions of such sums as shall be paid as water rentals or directly by the Government of Panama for such expenses (same act).

CHAPTER XIII—DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in order to defray the expenses of the District of Columbia for the fiscal year ending June 30, [1927] 1928, any revenue (not including the proportionate share of the United States in any revenue arising as the result of the expenditure of appropriations made for the fiscal year 1924 and prior fiscal years) now required by law to be credited to the District of Columbia and the United States in the same proportion that each contributed to the activity or source from whence such revenue was derived shall be credited wholly to the District of Columbia, and, in addition, $9,000,000 is appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be advanced July 1, [1926] 1927, and all the remainder out of the combined revenues of the District of Columbia and such advances from the Federal Treasury as are authorized in the District of Columbia appropriation act for the fiscal year 1923, namely:

Executive Office, District of Columbia—

For personal services in accordance with the classification act of 1923, [$42,840] $43,240, plus so much as may be necessary to make salary of engineer commissioner $7,500: Provided, That in expending appropriations, or portions of appropriations, contained in this act, for the payment for personal services in accordance with the classification act of 1923, the average of the salaries of the total number of persons under any grade in any bureau, office, or other appropriation unit shall not at any time exceed the average of the compensation rates specified for the grade by such act, and in grades in which only one position is allocated the salary of such position shall not exceed the average of the compensation rates for the grade except that in unusually meritorious cases of one position in a grade advances may be made to rates higher than the average of the compensation rates of the grade but not more often than once in any fiscal year and then only to the next higher rate: Provided, That this restriction shall not apply (1) to grades 1, 2, 3, and 4 of the clerical-mechanical service, or (2) to require the reduction in salary of any person whose compensation was fixed, as of July 1, 1924, in accordance with the rules of section 6 of such act, (3) to require the reduction in salary of any person who is transferred from one position to another position in the same or different grade in the same or a different bureau, office, or other appropriation unit, or (4) to prevent the payment of a salary under any grade at a rate higher than the maximum rate of the grade when such higher rate is permitted by the classification act of 1923, and is specifically authorized by other law (act May 10, 1926, vol. 44, p. 418) ..... $43,240.00 | $42,840.00

All of said motor vehicles and all other motor vehicles provided for in this act and all horse-drawn carriages and buggies owned by the District of Columbia shall be used only for purposes directly pertaining to the public services of said District, and shall be under the direction and control of the commissioners, who may from time to time alter or change the assignment for use thereof or direct the joint or interchangeable use of any of the same by officials and employees of the District, except as otherwise provided in this act: Provided, That, with the exception of motor vehicles for the police and fire departments, no automobile shall be acquired under any provision of this act, by purchase or exchange, at a cost, including the value of a vehicle exchanged, exceeding $650, except as may be herein specifically authorized. No motor vehicles shall be transferred from the police or fire departments to any other branch of the government of the District of Columbia (act May 10, 1926, vol. 44, p. 422).

Appropriations in this act shall not be expended for the purchase or maintenance of horses or horse-drawn vehicles for the use of the commissioners, or for the purchase or maintenance of horses or horse-drawn vehicles for inspection or other purposes for those officials or employees provided with motor vehicles (same act).

Appropriations in this act shall not be used for the purchase, livery, or maintenance of horses, or for the purchase, maintenance, or repair of buggies or carriages and harness, except as provided for in the appropriation for contingent and miscellaneous expenses or unless the appropriation from which the same is proposed to be paid shall specifically authorize such purchase, livery, maintenance, and repair, and except also as hereinafter authorized (same act).

Appropriations in this act shall not be used for the payment of premiums or other cost of fire insurance (same act).

For grading, including necessary culverts, drains, and retaining walls, the following:

Northwest: Audubon Terrace, Linnean Avenue to Broad Branch Road, $15,000.

Northwest: For widening by fifteen feet on each side and repaving the roadway of Connecticut Avenue from N Street to Dupont Circle; for widening by fifteen feet on the west side and repaving the roadway of this avenue from Eighteenth Street to N Street and for widening and repaving the roadway of the same avenue adjacent to United States Reservations numbered 150 and 150–A in accordance with plans approved jointly by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia and the Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks, $60,000.

Northwest: For widening to forty-eight feet and repaving the roadway of Twelfth Street from E Street to Pennsylvania Avenue, $10,000.

Northwest: For widening to sixty feet and repaving the roadway of Fifteenth Street, west of McPherson Square, from I Street to K Street; and for widening to seventy feet and repaving the roadway of this street from K Street to Massachusetts Avenue, $95,000.

In the widening and repaving of roadways hereinbefore provided for, 40 per centum of the entire cost thereof in each case shall be assessed against and collected from the owners of abutting property in the manner provided in the act approved July 1, 1914 (Thirty-eighth Statutes, page 524), as amended by section 8 of the act approved September 1, 1916 (Thirty-ninth Statutes, page 716). The owners of abutting property also shall be required to modify, at their own expense, the roofs of any vaults that may be under the sidewalk or parking on said street if it be found necessary to change such vaults to permit of the roadway being widened.

For minor changes in roadway and sidewalks on plans to be approved by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia to facilitate vehicular and pedestrian traffic, $10,000.

For construction of curbs and gutters and adjustment of roadways thereto, $23,400.

The appropriation for paving Thirty-fourth Street, Massachusetts Avenue to Cleveland Avenue, contained in the District of Columbia Appropriation Act for the fiscal year 1926, is hereby made available for the purpose of paving forty feet wide that portion of the roadway of Thirty-fourth Street between Massachusetts Avenue and Garfield Street.

In all [$658,100], $1,350,000; to be disbursed and accounted for as "Gasoline tax, road and street improvements," and for that purpose shall constitute one fund and be available immediately: Provided, That no part of such fund shall be used for the improvement of any street or section thereof not herein specified: Provided further, That assessments in accordance with existing law shall be made for paving and repaving roadways where such roadways are paved or repaved with funds derived from the collection of the tax on motor-vehicle fuels, and decretions by repayment of assessments.

SEC. 2. That the services of draftsmen, assistant engineers, levelers, transitmen, rodmen, chainmen, computers, copyist, overseers, and inspectors temporarily required in connection with sewer, street, street-cleaning or road work, or construction and repair of buildings and bridges, or any general or special engineering or construction work authorized by appropriations may be employed exclusively to carry into effect said appropriations when specifically and in writing ordered by the commissioners, and all such necessary expenditures for the proper execution of said work shall be paid from and equitably charged against the sums appropriated for said work; and the commissioners in their budget estimates shall report the number of such employees performing such services, and their work, and the sums paid to each, and out of what appropriation: Provided, That the expenditures hereunder shall not exceed $20,000 during the fiscal year [1927] 1928: Provided further, That no person shall be employed in pursuance of the authority contained in this paragraph for a longer period than nine months in the aggregate during the fiscal year.

The commissioners are further authorized to employ temporarily such laborers, skilled laborers, drivers, hostlers, and mechanics as may be required exclusively in connection with sewer, street, and road work, and street cleaning, or the construction and repair of buildings and bridges, furniture and equipments, and any general or special engineering or construction or repair work, and to incur all necessary engineering and other expenses, exclusive of personal services, incidental to carrying on such work and necessary for the proper execution thereof, said laborers, skilled laborers, drivers, hostlers, and mechanics to be employed to perform such work as may not be required by law to be done under contract, and to pay for such services and expenses from the appropriations under which such services are rendered and expenses incurred (act May 10, 1926, vol. 44, p. 452).

SEC. 3. That all horses, harness, horse-drawn vehicles necessary for use in connection with construction and supervision of sewer, street, street lighting, road work, and street-cleaning work, including maintenance of said horses and harness, and maintenance and repair of said vehicles, and purchase of all necessary articles and supplies in connection therewith, or on construction and repair of buildings and bridges, or any general or special engineering or construction work authorized by appropriations, may be purchased, hired, and maintained and motor trucks may be hired exclusively to carry into effect said appropriations, when specifically and in writing ordered by the commissioners; and all such expenditures necessary for the proper execution of said work, exclusive of personal services, shall be paid from and equitably charged against the sums appropriated for said work; and the commissioners in the budget estimates shall report the number of horses, vehicles, and harness purchased, and horses and vehicles hired, and the sums paid for same, and out of what appropriation; and all horses owned or maintained by the District shall, so far as may be practicable, be provided for in stables owned or operated by said District: Provided, That such horses, horse-drawn vehicles, and carts as may be temporarily needed for hauling and excavating material in connection with works authorized by appropriations may be temporarily employed for such purposes under the conditions named in section 2 of this act in relation to the employment of laborers, skilled laborers, and mechanics (same act).

SEC. 4. The commissioners are further authorized to employ temporarily such laborers, skilled laborers, and mechanics, as may be required in connection with water-department work, and to incur all necessary engineering and other expenses, exclusive of personal services, incidental to carrying on such work and necessary for the proper execution thereof, said laborers, skilled laborers, and mechanics to be employed to perform such work as may not be required by existing law to be done under contract, and to pay for such services and expenses from the appropriation under which such services are rendered and expenses incurred (same act).

SEC. 5. That the commissioners are authorized to employ in the execution of work the cost of which is payable from the appropriation account created in the District of Columbia appropriation act, approved April 27, 1904, and known as the "Miscellaneous trust-fund deposits, District of Columbia," all necessary inspectors, overseers, foremen, sewer tappers, skilled laborers, mechanics, laborers, special policemen stationed at street-railway crossings, one inspector of gas fitting, two janitors for laboratories of the Washington and Georgetown Gas Light Companies, market master, assistant market master, watchman, two bookkeepers in the auditor's office, clerk in the office of the collector of taxes, horses, carts, and wagons, and to hire therefor motor trucks when specifically and in writing authorized by the commissioners, and to incur all necessary expenses incidental to carrying on such work and necessary for the proper execution thereof, including the purchase of one passenger-carrying motor vehicle at a cost not to exceed $650, and including maintenance of motor vehicles for inspection and transportation purposes, such services and expenses to be paid from said appropriation account (act May 10, 1926, vol. 44, p. 452). That any person employed under any of the provisions of this act who has been employed for 10 consecutive months or more, shall not be denied the leave of absence with pay for which the law provides (act May 10, 1926, vol. 44, p. 453). SEC. 6. That the commissioners and other responsible officials, in expending appropriations contained in this act, so far as possible shall purchase material, supplies, including food supplies and equipment, when needed and funds are available, from the various services of the Government of the United States possessing material, supplies, passenger-carrying and other motor vehicles, and equipment no longer required because of the cessation of war activities. It shall be the duty of the commissioners and other officials, before purchasing any of the articles described herein, to ascertain from the Government of the United States whether it has articles of the character described that are serviceable. And articles purchased from the Government, if the same have not been used, shall be paid for at a reasonable price, not to exceed actual cost, and if the same have been used, at a reasonable price based upon length of usage. The various services of the Government of the United States are authorized to sell such articles to the municipal government under the conditions specified and the proceeds of such sales shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts: Provided, That this section shall not be construed to amend, alter, or repeal the Executive order of December 3, 1918, concerning the transfer of office materials, supplies, and equipment in the District of Columbia falling into disuse because of the cessation of war activities (same act). [SEC. 7. Hereafter in the payment of compensation of per diem employees of the Government of the District of Columbia a signature by mark duly witnessed by an employee of such District designated for that purpose by the commissioners, shall be deemed a full legal acquittance as to such signature] (same act).

Total, District of Columbia, excluding permanent and indefinite appropriations	$35, 977, 869. 00	$34, 958, 571. 00
INDEFINITE APPROPRIATIONS
Refunding Taxes, District of Columbia— For payment of amounts collected by the District erroneously on account of taxes, fines, fees, and similar charges which are returned to the respective parties who may have erroneously paid the same (chargeable to the revenues of the District of Columbia) (act June 11, 1878, vol. 20, pp. 102–108, secs. 3, 4)	60, 000. 00	15, 000. 00
Expenditures: 1928, $60,000; 1927, $60,000; 1926, $66,696.51.
Extension, etc., of Streets and Avenues, District of Columbia— In the various appropriations on account of extension of streets and avenues in the District of Columbia it has been the practice to make the payment of the amount awarded as damages resulting from condemnation proceedings indefinite, inasmuch as no estimate could be made as to the amount that would be awarded by the jury of condemnation in the several causes (chargeable to the revenues of the District of Columbia) (act Mar. 3, 1899, vol. 30, p. 1345, sec. 6)	130, 000. 00	15, 000. 00
SPECIAL AND TRUST FUNDS
Industrial Home School Fund, District of Columbia— This fund is derived from collections made on account of farm and greenhouse products by inmates of said school, and is used for miscellaneous expenses of maintenance, etc., on account of that institution (act June 11, 1896, vol. 29, p. 411, sec. 91)	4, 000. 00	2, 000. 00
Expenditures: 1928, $4,000; 1927, $2,000; 1926, $4,856.44.
Militia Fund from Fines, District of Columbia— This fund is derived from fines imposed upon officers and men of the District Militia, and is used for the payment of clerical and miscellaneous expenses of the said militia (act Mar. 1, 1901, vol. 31, p. 845, sec. 1). Escheated Estates Relief Fund, District of Columbia— This fund is derived from proceeds of sale of effects of deceased persons in the District who die leaving no heirs or next of kin, and is expended for the benefit of the poor of the District (act Mar. 3, 1901, vol. 31, p. 1251, sec. 388)	3, 000. 00
Expenditures: 1928, $3,000; 1927, $3,000; 1926, $3,821.57.

Teachers' Retirement Fund Deductions, District of Columbia— Indefinite appropriation of the amounts deducted from the basic salaries of teachers of the public schools of the District of Columbia, to be deposited in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of an individual account of the teacher from whose salary the deduction is made. The fund thus created to be held and invested until paid out as provided in the acts of Congress in relation thereto (acts Jan. 15, 1920, vol. 41, p. 387, secs. 1, 2; June 5, 1920, vol. 41, p. 852, sec. 1; June 11, 1926, vol. 44, p. 727)	$325,000.00	$175,000.00
Miscellaneous Trust-Fund Deposits, District of Columbia— This fund is derived from deposits made by property owners, corporations, and others on account of work to be performed by the District in connection with cuts in streets, special sewers, and various engineering projects the whole cost of which is payable by the depositor; there are also carried in this account several bequests for the benefit of certain charitable and religious institutions, and as a fund to provide awards for prizes for excellence in school work (act Apr. 27, 1904, vol. 33, p. 368, sec. 1)	1,000,000.00	771,557.00
Expenditures: 1928, $1,000,000; 1927, $1,000,000; 1926, $1,187,290.17.
Washington Redemption Fund, District of Columbia— This fund is derived from the collections on account of payments made by persons redeeming their property which has been previously sold for taxes; payments from this fund are made to the various holders of certificates representing purchases of such unpaid taxes (act June 11, 1878, vol. 20, pp. 102–108, secs. 1–15)	350,000.00	125,000.00
Expenditures: 1928, $350,000; 1927, $350,000; 1926, $434,493.53.
Permit Fund, District of Columbia— This fund is derived from deposits made by property owners for various improvements, sewers, etc., of which the half cost is paid by said owner (act Aug. 7, 1894, vol. 28, p. 247, sec. 1)	80,000.00	20,000.00
Expenditures: 1928, $80,000; 1927, $80,000; 1926, $91,896.63.
Policemen and Firemen's Relief Fund, District of Columbia— This fund consists of fines imposed upon members of the police and fire departments by way of discipline; rewards, gifts, and emoluments received for extraordinary services; a deduction of 2½ per cent of the monthly salary of each member of said departments; donations; net proceeds of sale of unclaimed property, any deficiencies in said fund being paid from the general revenues of the District of Columbia. Payments are made to pensioners under said fund pursuant to law (acts Feb. 25, 1885, vol. 23, pp. 316, 317, sec. 1; Sept. 1, 1916, vol. 39, p. 718, sec. 12; Sept. 8, 1916, vol. 39, p. 809, sec. 1)	590,000.00	450,000.00
Expenditures: 1928, $590,000; 1927, $450,000; 1926, $523,656.48.
Surplus Fund, District of Columbia— This fund is derived from amount of surplus paid at tax sales by purchasers of tax-sale certificates on account of property sold for taxes; upon the redemption of the property by the owner the surplus reverts to the original depositor (act June 11, 1878, vol. 20, pp. 102–108, secs. 1–15).
Expenditures: 1926, $17.
Outstanding Liabilities, District of Columbia— This fund is derived from funds to the credit of disbursing officers of the District to meet checks issued and outstanding for a period of three years and over, the said funds being transferred from the disbursing officers' official credit to the credit of this fund (act Apr. 28, 1904, vol. 33, p. 574, secs. 1, 2).
Redemption of Tax-Lien Certificates, Redemption of Assessment Certificates, Washington Special Tax Fund— These funds are created in connection with tax system under acts of Congress and represent moneys deposited for the redemption of the various certificates of the District issued thereunder. No expenditure is anticipated on account of said funds during 1928 (act June 11, 1878, vol. 20, pp. 102–108, secs. 1–15).
